Children's Discovery Museum of San Jose Presents:

KEEP ON Playing

Legacy for Children Award

Virtual, Thursday, June 17, 2021

Honoring
Roberta Guaspari
Violinist, Teacher, Co-Founder and Artistic Director of Performance, Opus 118 Harlem School of Music

Through her work teaching violin to children in Harlem public schools, Roberta Guaspari became an international figure in the fight for public music education for low-income children. Her story was the inspiration for the Academy Award nominated movie, Music of the Heart, starring Meryl Streep.

Proceeds from Keep on Playing will enable Children's Discovery Museum's continued promise to thrive so that when it is safe, children will once again play and discover in their own hands-on, minds-on ways with interactive exhibits and immersive environments.
