This story is dedicated to my Grandmother and my Auntie Tru who have suffered severely from smoking.

One day Nick asked Jake if he wanted a cigarette. Jake said yes, what a bad choice he made that day.

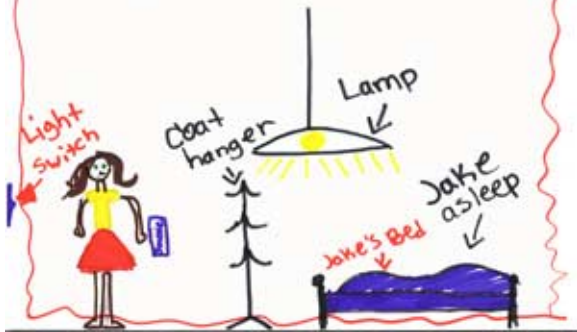

5

Jake went home and his mother asked him if he smoked. He said no. Again she asked and again he said no.

6

Later that night Jake's mother found cigarettes in Jake's room.

7

In the morning she asked Jake why she had found cigarettes in his room.

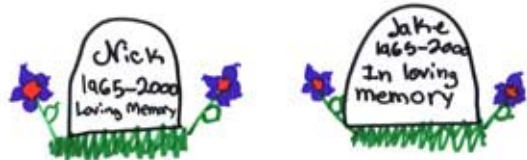

8

Jake went to Nick's house that day and smoked and watched T.V. all day.

9

Ten years later they (Nick and Jake) both died at the age of 35 of lung and heart cancer from having smoked for many years.
