

Children's Discovery Museum of San Jose Presents:

KEEP ON Playing

Legacy for Children Award

Virtual, Thursday, June 17, 2021

5:30-6:30 p.m.

Honoring

Roberta Guaspari

Violinist, Teacher, Co-Founder and Artistic Director of Performance, Opus 118 Harlem School of Music

Through her work teaching violin to children in Harlem public schools, Roberta Guaspari became an international figure in the fight for public music education for low-income children. Her story was the inspiration for the Academy Award nominated movie, Music of the Heart, starring Meryl Streep.

Event Highlights

Appearances by Cantabile Youth Singers of Silicon Valley, Mariachi México & more

Award presentation & acceptance remarks by Roberta Guaspari

Learn more about Children's Discovery Museum of San Jose

Remarks on the importance of children's play by Michael C. Frank, Ph.D. David and Lucile Packard Foundation Professor of Human Biology Stanford University

Facilitated "hands-on" activity using everyday materials

Join in the Fund-A-Need Campaign 2021

Enjoy Special Performances by Black Violin

And much more!

Family Ticket Types

Premium Family $500

- Deluxe snack pack*
- Supply kit for hands-on activity*
- Free access to the online event
- 4 Tickets to the Museum
- $360 is tax deductible

Family $150

- Supply kit for hands-on activity*
- Free access to the online event
- $100 is tax deductible

*mailed to home or office

Register Now

Streaming Only - Free

- Free access to the online event

Register Now